My Journey with Jaramogi ... Memoirs of a Close Confidant / Odinge Odera

Nairobi, Kenya: African Research & Resource Forum (ARRF), 2010

iv. 202p. ; 21cm.

ISBN-10: 9966706283

$ 35.00

In this landmark biography, Odinge Odera tells his extraordinary personal story – of politics in days gone past, and of his relationship with the legendary father of opposition politics in Kenya, Jaramogi Oginga Odinga.

Odinge Odera's biographical narration of his political life with Jaramogi Oginga Odinga is a well-written, moving inspiring and at times very sad story. It reveals what happened in the lives of two very politically committed people, coming from a generation of nationalists who upheld very high values in fighting for the liberation of Kenyans who sought justice, fairness and dignity in post-independence Kenya. Jaramongi was the patron-saint of these nationalist; men like Odinge were both the ideologues and the foot soldiers of this liberation tradition.
