Although Hong Kong is an open and business-friendly environment, it has a socialist leasehold land tenure system. The government is landlord to virtually all land, so it plays a pivotal role in the administration of this scarce and therefore valuable resource. As land administration is governed by private contract law rather than legislation, it is constantly evolving with the courts handing down decisions on a regular basis.

Government practice also has to respond to this, as well as to the community's concerns on how best land can be administered. As a result, regular updates of this book are required and this new Third Edition is fully up to date to serve its readers — students and practitioners of surveying, architecture, planning and law, and the wider business and financial community.

Administration of Estates in Malaysia: Law & Procedure / Akmal Hidayah Halim

Kuala Lumpur : Sweet & Maxwell Asia, 2011

257p.

9789675040849

Administration of Estates in Malaysia: Law and Procedure is an up-to-date and highly readable book designed to provide a clear account of the theoretical and procedural framework relating to estates administration for both Muslims and non-Muslims in Malaysia. This book focuses on the jurisdiction, scope and procedure for estates administration by the High Court, the Small Estates Distribution Section and the Public Trust Corporation (Amanah Raya Berhad), these being the three main administrative bodies responsible for estates administration in Malaysia. The procedures are visualised in the form of charts to illustrate the process flow of the administration process and sample forms are provided to serve as quick references of the process. This book includes discussion on the execution of trust and wills which has the effect of determining the jurisdiction of the administrative bodies. The discussion incorporates the latest amendment to the Small Estates (Distribution) Act 1955 which has come into force on September 1, 2009. This book also highlights the execution of wassiyyah and hibah and provides a comparison between the concepts of charge under the National Land Code 1965 with the concept of al-Rahn in Islam.

The Sultan Azlan Shah Law Lecture Series was conceived to honour His Royal Highness Sultan Azlan Shah's contribution to the development of Malaysian law. Since the first lecture was delivered in 1986, distinguished jurists, barristers and academics in the common law world have graced Malaysian shores to deliver authoritative, stimulating and thought-provoking lectures on a diverse range of topics. The Sultan Azlan Shah Law Lectures: Rule of Law, Written Constitution and the Common Law Tradition contains the full text of the 18th to the 24th lectures delivered from 2004 to 2010. Together with the earlier companion volume, The Sultan Azlan Shah Law Lectures: Judges on the Common Law (2004), containing the first 17 lectures delivered between 1986–2003, readers now have access to the authoritative compilation of the Sultan Azlan Shah Law Lectures delivered to date.

Borneo Law Reports - Administrative Law - Betting, Gaming and Lottery / Editor TAN Kee Heng

Kuala Lumpur : Sweet & Maxwell Asia, 2011

9799675040757

$ 220.00

The Borneo Law Reports covers all major areas of law with reference to the most recent developments in each of the areas reported. This work contains more than 500 full judgments (divided into seven volumes based on subject matter headings) decided by the High Court, Court of Appeal and the Federal Court that represent all the important cases originating from the High Court in Sabah and Sarawak from 1993 to 2011, many of which are hitherto unreported in any of the law reports in Malaysia. Each case is uniquely accompanied by a Commentary that makes reference to the latest judicial decisions, both local and foreign, and the relevant legislative provisions with the aim of keeping researchers abreast of recent developments. Each detailed Commentary aids in the understanding of a case in the light of earlier or subsequent cases, thus enabling the researcher to have a better appreciation of the development and application of the law. The Commentary includes the Appeal Status that provides valuable update on the status of each case, where applicable, as it goes through any appeal that has been filed.

While the Borneo Law Reports contains cases from several areas of law that are peculiar to Sabah and Sarawak, and provides a very valuable collection of such cases for future reference, the publication also contains much case law on subjects that are applicable throughout Malaysia, including administrative law, banking law, bankruptcy, civil procedure, company law, constitutional law, contract, criminal law, criminal procedure, evidence, family law, revenue law and tort.

The Borneo Law Reports comes in handsome bound volumes with cases organised according to subject matter headings arranged alphabetically. Each case is supported by concise and well-structured catchwords as well as a succinct headnote with holdings referenced to the relevant parts of the case.

Criminal Procedure in the Syariah Courts/ Shamrahayu A Aziz

Kuala Lumpur : Sweet & Maxwell Asia, 2011

210p. (PB)

9789675040733

$ 35.00

To ensure justice for all, Islamic criminal procedure law provides specific fundamental principles in criminal pre-trial, trial and post-trial matters including ethics in the investigation process, principles of criminal trial in a court of law, as well as rules and processes in conviction, sentencing and the enforcement and execution of sentence. This book provides a good introduction to the applicable Islamic criminal procedure law in the Syariah courts in Malaysia. It seeks to put together in a convenient volume relevant materials on this subject which impacts many segments of society everyday. The simple narrative style adopted in the text assists in the easy understanding of the subject matter, with regular reference made to relevant verses of the Qur'an and Hadith, statutory provisions and court decisions.

Written by an author who is an experienced teacher of this area of law, Criminal Procedure in the Syariah Courts should prove to be an invaluable source of information for Syariah court judges, syari'e lawyers, religious enforcement officers and students of law.

Public International Law: A Practical Approach / Abdul Ghafur Hamid @ Khin Maung Sein
3rd Edition

Kuala Lumpur : Sweet & Maxwell Asia, 2011

520p.

9789675040702

$ 125.00

This new edition has been completely revised and extensively rewritten to cover the rapid development in this branch of law brought about by a number of landmark rulings decided by the International Court of Justice and other international courts and tribunals. Amongst the rapidly developing areas are the law of state responsibility, international human rights law, and the law on the use of force – these are fully reflected in the updated contents of this book.

Written by an author who has spent many years specialising in this area, this book continues to give valuable insights into the Malaysian position on the various topics of international law in particular and the general principles of international law in general.

The breadth of its coverage makes it a very useful introduction to the often unfamiliar concepts of international law. The book has copious references which point readers to relevant treaties, international documents, court decisions and articles published in numerous journals.

Criminal Litigation Process / Baljit Singh Sidhu

2nd Edition

Kuala Lumpur : Sweet & Maxwell Asia, 2011

630p. (HB)

9789675040689

The criminal litigation process is full of detailed procedure and its proper implementation is important to the fair administration of criminal justice. Case law abounds in this area in applying and interpreting the legislative provisions. A good grasp and understanding of the interplay between the statutory provisions and case law will prove vital in the study and practice of criminal litigation.

Written by an experienced criminal law practitioner, this book contains a wealth of knowledge on the criminal litigation process in Malaysia. The text is presented in a lucid and readable manner and contains significant recent court decisions and new legislative developments, including the Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Act 2010 and the Criminal Procedure Code (Amendment) Act 2006/2007.

The key new areas covered in this book include:

Case law development on section 51A of the CPC in relation to pre-trial discovery;

Plea bargaining;

Pre-trial conference and case management in relation to pre-trial processes;

Amendments to section 402A in relation to alibi;

Death inquiry process;

Section 28A on the rights of arrested persons.

This book is a valuable reference for the various parties involved in the administration of justice including students studying the subject of criminal procedure. The detailed discussion, supported by copious citation of case authorities, sheds light on the technicalities of criminal procedure. The comprehensive charts included in the book provide a very useful overview and assists in the overall understanding of each topic.
