China-ASEAN Sub-Regional Cooperation: Progress, Problems and Prospect / Ming Jiang LI, Chong Guan KWA (Editors)
Singapore: World Scientific Publishing Co. Pte. Ltd., 2011
xiii. 172p. ; 23cm.
ISBN-13: 9789814340427 (HB)
$ 78.00

This book is an edited volume about China-ASEAN relations with contributions from experts based in China and Singapore. The book includes a few excellent papers that were presented at a conference the editor organized in October 2009 and also two other research papers. They examine China-ASEAN relations from a sub-regional cooperation perspective. The book discusses and analyzes China-ASEAN cooperation in the Greater Mekong River Sub-region (GMS), the emerging Pan-Beibu economic zone, ASEAN's growth triangles, and the hydraulic power sector, as well as China-ASEAN economic relations in the wake of the financial crisis. They carefully review the progresses that have been achieved, examine new policy proposals that have been put forth, and explore problems that exist in all these sub-regional cooperation schemes between China and ASEAN.

The Globalization of Chinese Companies: Strategies for Conquering International Markets / Arthur Yeung, Katherine Xin, Waldemar Pfoertsch & Shengjun Liu
Singapore: John Wiley & Sons (Asia) Pte. Ltd., 2011
xi. 203p. ; 24cm.
ISBN-13: 9780470828786 (HB)
$ 42.00

The rise of China has been widely accepted as a key development in the 21st Century. As an indicator of this trend, many leading Chinese firms have started to show their muscle through the ambitious acquisition of global brands like Thinkpad and RCA. Nevertheless, most people in western countries know very little about these Barbarians at the Gate. Who are they? Will they change the global competitive landscape as Japanese firms did in the 1980s? How should western companies react to these new challengers?

The rise of these ambitious Chinese companies in the global stage could offer both opportunities and challenges. In this book, you will see many convincing and in-depth case studies, first-hand interview as well as useful frameworks to understand this next wave of globalisation.

Chinnovation: How Chinese Innovators are Changing the World / Yinglan Tan
Singapore: John Wiley & Sons (Asia) Pte. Ltd., 2011
xiv. 298p. ; 24cm.
ISBN-13: 9780470827963 (HB)
$ 42.00

It is widely-believed that China's entrepreneur has grown and their businesses are succeeding primarily due to their knowledge of the domestic market, quick adaptation to market changes, and their resourcefulness. But innovation? Forget about it. Well, not quite. Drawing on a wealth of on-the-ground stories and thorough research, Chinnovation: How Chinese Innovators Are Changing the World shows how Chinese companies of every stripe have dispelled this myth and overcome the barriers to successful, profitable innovation ...

Red Capitalism: The Fragile Financial Foundation of China's Extraordinary Rise / Carle E. Walter & Fraser J. T. Howie
Singapore: John Wiley & Sons (Asia) Pte. Ltd., 2011
xiii. 234p. ; 24cm.
ISBN-13: 9780470825860 (HB)
$ 42.00

In "Red Capitalism," Carl Walter and Fraser Howie detail how the Chinese government reformed and modeled its financial system in the 30 years since it began its policy of engagement with the west. Instead of a stable series of policies producing steady growth, China's financial sector has boomed and gone bust with regularity in each decade. The latest decade is little different. Chinese banks have become objects of political struggle while they totter under balance sheets bloated by the excessive state-directed lending and bond issuance of 2009.

Unexpectedly in 1958, an irreverent British journalist and Australian cartoonist duo were granted visas to visit Communist China at its most closed and inscrutable. They went, they saw, and they produced one of a picture of China at a key moment in its history, still feeding off the exhilaration of the creation of "People's China" in 1949, and full of optimism and blind idealism

Tales of Old Shanghai: A Scrapbook of Words and Images Bringing to Life the Glorious Past of China's Greatest City / Graham Earnshaw

Hong Kong : Earnshaw Books, 2008

149p. ; 21cm.

ISBN-13: 9789881762115

$ 22.00

The old Shanghai was a rich and cosmopolitan mixture of East and West. This book provides a glimpse into that world with a mish-mash of photos, newspaper clippings, cartoons and writings to bring back to life those far-off days.

There has never been a place like Shanghai -- the layers and depth of richness that the city possesses is extraordinary. This book attempts to give a feel for the world of Old Shanghai. It is not a history book in the usual sense of the term. There is no need to start at page one and read through to the end. It is a jumble of items which evoke the different eras of Old Shanghai.

Stateless in Shanghai / Liliane Willens
Hong Kong : Earnshaw Books, 2011
x. 311p. ; 21cm.
ISBN-13: 9789881815484
$ 22.00

Born in Shanghai to Jewish Russian parents who fled the Bolshevik Revolution, Liliane Willens is a "stateless" girl in the world's most cosmopolitan city. But when the Far East explodes in conflict, the family's uncertain status puts them at risk of being stranded, or worse. Stateless in Shanghai recounts Willens' life and trials in a China collapsing under the weight of foreign invaders and civil war

Hong Kong: Earnshaw Books, 2011
197p. ; 21cm.
ISBN-13: 9789881909091
$ 19.95

British journalist Hadley Arnold, based in Hong Kong, is employed by a mysterious American "casting agent" to help destroy the reputation of an actor tipped to become the next James Bond. With only his questionable ethics and worse instincts to guide him, his quest takes him from sleazy bars in Hong Kong to deadly beaches in Sri Lanka. It's a tough job. Even for the man with the golden quote.

Series on Contemporary China Vol. 29

$ 110.00

This book examines different dynamics such as marketisation, globalisation and new media technologies that have driven the transformation of China's media industry — one of the primary battlegrounds where ideological, social and economic struggles are fought — against the backdrop of the growing tensions between economic growth, globalisation, and political control in China.
