CIVIL REMEDIES, 2ND EDITION / Cheong May Fong, Lee Yin Harn
Malaysia : Sweet & Maxwell, 2016

9789670915630

$ 120.00 /HB

The question of remedies is a practical and challenging one, invoked in almost every civil legal dispute. Civil Remedies provides a comprehensive exposition of the law on remedies applicable in contractual and commercial litigation in Malaysia. After almost 10 years, the book has updated significantly. In this second edition, the detailed exposition of the Malaysian position is greatly enhanced by a comparative analysis of English and Australian law.

KEY FEATURES

- Comprehensive exposition of law on remedies applicable in contractual and commercial litigation in Malaysia
- Contents structured around functions of remedies and their origins (legal or equitable)
- Highlights the role of remedies and the factors affecting their grant, particularly in relation to discretionary equitable remedies
- Relevant statutory provisions (Contracts Act 1950 and the Specific Relief Act 1950) and huge volume of local and foreign case law carefully surveyed and analysed to distil current principles of law
- Book presentation carefully restructured with content outlined at the beginning of each chapter, paragraph numbers extensively cross referenced for ease of finding specific points of law and list of relevant articles.

SALE OF GOODS LAW IN MALAYSIA / Dr Abdul Majid, Dr. Krishnan
Malaysia : Sweet & Maxwell, 2016
9789670915883
$ 119.00/HB

Presenting an in-depth exposition of the various topics under sale of goods law in prose that is clear, concise and readable, this book makes possible a good understanding of an aspect of law that often arises in many commercial transactions.

The authors have drawn on their extensive experience in professional legal practice, teaching law in Malaysia, Hong Kong and Australia, as well as a track record of academic research and publication to prepare this useful reference on sale of goods law.

Excerpts of leading judgments drawn from several common law jurisdictions are included to supplement the extensive reference to local cases in the context of the Sale of Goods Act 1957 in order to assist the reader to better appreciate the workings of the law in this area, obviating the necessity of looking around for a case book. This approach not only assists the reader to gain a critical appreciation of the underlying legal processes, but also to use the book as a stand-alone text.

Eschewing the "bare bones" notational approach adopted by some texts as well as the detailed technical explanation of legal principles adopted by others, this book presents a comprehensive explanation of the various topics with great clarity, making it a key reference for lawyers, legal advisers, lecturers and students.

KEY FEATURES:

Clear analysis of the law.

Careful selection of judgment extracts of relevant authoritative cases drawn largely from Malaysia and the United Kingdom as well as Hong Kong and Australia to support discussion of law.

Provides in-depth exposition of the topics in a clear, concise and readable style.

Written by authors with extensive knowledge of business law.

Only up-to-date book on sale of goods law in Malaysia

 CONSTITUTIONAL FEDERALISM IN MALAYSIA, 2ND EDITION /JC Fong
 Malaysia : Sweet & Maxwell, 2016
 9789670915685
 $ 118.00 /HB

This book covers constitutional history and discusses the Federal system of Government under the Constitution, involving, inter alia, the distribution of Legislative and Executive powers, the rights and responsibilities of the Federal and the State Governments, the sharing of revenues, financial burdens and functions between the Federal Government and the States, the special protection for Sabah & Sarawak, and amendments to the Federal Constitution, particularly those amendments which could affect the rights and interests of the States.

NEW IN THIS EDITION

Updated to reflect new judicial pronouncements and legislative developments.
 Discusses calls for the greater sharing of the nation's wealth and revenue.
 Considers the viability of the decentralization of powers to State Governments.
 Analyses the constitutional issues of when and how confidence in the Government is to be determined, and when its leader may be dismissed.
 Discusses judicial decisions on religious issues such as conversions, divorce and custody of children, and on the preclusion of non-Muslim lawyers from appearing in the Syariah Courts.
 Explains the court's more liberal stance on the locus standi of individuals to challenge the Government's breach of constitutional duties.
 Examines recent judicial decisions acknowledging private citizens' rights to seek legal remedies to enforce Malaysia Agreement and constitutional safeguards for Borneo States

KEY FEATURES

Gives clear explanation of the distribution of sovereign powers between the Federation and the States.

Contains extensive discussion of the powers of Parliament to amend the supreme law and of the guiding principles of the Constitution.

Provides analytical and insightful commentary, with regular reference to cases, legislation and background source.

Written by author with in-depth knowledge experience in managing Federal-State relations nstructive guide for all litigators conducting appeals.

Written by an experienced court lawyer, Civil and Criminal Appeals in Malaysia (3Ed) provides an extensive and detailed exposition of the law governing the conduct of appeals in civil and criminal matters. It discusses all practical issues faced by the litigator in conducting an appeal. The procedural requirements are analysed at length to expose the multitude of technicalities inherent in appellate practice.

The Sabah Land Ordinance is the main legislation in Sabah for the classification of land and the provision of rights and titles over land. It was established to regulate the alienation and occupation of state lands. The Ordinance also governs matters relating to the collection of revenue, land survey and demarcation, enforcement and penalties for offences related to land and land ownership. Its serve as a guide and reference for legal practitioners, the Land Authorities, prosecutors, judges, students, lecturers, researchers, as well as members of the public. This compilation contains the Sabah Land Ordinance and all the relevant subsidiary legislation passed under the Ordinance. Among the subsidiary legislation found here is the Land Rules 1930.
