Biography/Memoirs

My Odyssey: Revolutionary and Evolutionary / Jeyaraj C. Rajarao
Petaling Jaya: SIRD-Strategic Information and Research Development Centre, 2022
xviii, 594p.
9789672464433
1. Jeyaraj C. Rajarao, 1932-.
2. Autobiography.
$ 50.00 / PB
908gm.

This autobiography is reflective of the many dimensional attitudes of the author, Dato' Jeyaraj C. Rajarao. As he recounts his life story it is evident that he has lived a life with passion, integrity, wit and mischief. A life of black and white, with very little grey in it.

The narrative begins with a simple story of love that spans decades. It then takes the reader through a young boy's experience of the Japanese occupation of Malaya until she gains independence. It is obvious that the political, social and economic situation of the period influenced Rajarao as a young boy and helped form his ideologies. Rajarao is hard-hitting and critical when he conveys his opinions about the activities of the Prime Minister, and his cohorts, that caused Malaysia to be regarded as the worst kleptocratic country in the world. However, the reader becomes aware of how much Rajarao loves and despairs for Malaysia as he shares how she is being torn apart by race and religion-based policies. No doubt, there is much that can be regarded as controversial or confrontational but that is inevitable when truth is told. The book is intensely personal and immensely interesting. He is brutally honest as he admits his mistakes and apologizes.

This book is recommended reading for the young and the old, as it is both a history book as well as an autobiography. It is dribbled with sharp observations on life, and draws the reader into a different era, yet it also educates them and recommends a purpose driven life. The Odyssey is certainly most thought-provoking, enlightening and stimulating.

Into The Abyss : Memoirs of a Junkie / Andy Budikasuma
Malaysia: Inspiration Hub, 2022

120p.
9789671940242
$ 15.00 / PB
300gm.

This book is about my true story of being a hardcore heroin addict for thirteen years and how it affects my family and friends. I have suffered a lot in my lifetime. Being addicted to heroin is like falling into a dark abyss all alone with pure agony. Slowly, friends and families will slip away. All you can think of is where and when to get your next fix just to avoid the pain of withdrawal symptoms. Your junkie friends will stab you in the back.

How did I become this monster while I come from a very well-to-do family? My parents did everything in their power to get me out of the slump of addiction but I refused to accept the help at the time. My parents had to deal with the humiliation and not to mention society's stigma towards us junkies.

I'm here first to say not all junkies are bad. You just need to get to know them before you make assumptions that they're all bad batches.

I wrote this book to help the current generation of youth before they plunge themselves into the harsh and unforgiving world of addiction. Also it will tell my story of how I got into gangsterism and being a big drug dealer at the tender age of 16. For those of you who have the same problems that I went through way back, please do pick up this book.

Education

Issue and Ideas in Education For The New Malaysia / Mohd Tajuddin Mohd Rasdi
Petaling Jaya: SIRD-Strategic Information and Research Development Centre, 2022

xiv, 146p.
9789672464440
$ 17.50 / PB
228gm.

The social, economic, religious and political problems of the present can be traced entirely to our education system. The way our schools, universities and religious institutions managed education expired 30 years ago, and we, therefore, need a new perspective for our country to move into the future and into the global market. Our education was premised on the production of workers as 'tools' to man the industry that would produce rapid growth. We have excelled at producing workers through our education industry, and they find themselves placed in a world of communication technology, ill-equipped to deal with technological, political and social changes. The old social, political and religious narratives that served as the foundation for the education constructs in the past must now change into a more inclusive, tolerant and exploratory construct in order to create real intelligence, and innovation that drives the entrepreneurship of ideas as well as social and political revolution. This book asks the questions that the government does not want to ask, does not care to ask, and does not even know how to ask about the ways in which our schools, universities and religious institutions must readdress the issue of education in a global and fast-changing world where the old order of work, play, learn, and communicate have vastly changed.

LEGAL ASPECTS OF FIDUCIARY DUTIES IN MALAYSIA / Wan Azlan Ahmad, Mohsin Hingun
Malaysia: Sweet & Maxwell, 2022
362p.
DUO (Hardback + ProView eBook)
9789672723509
$ 125.00 / HB

This work seeks to examine the principles of law in relation to the legal duties of fiduciaries. These duties are not only those that originate from the equitable jurisdiction of the court, but also involve some other duties imposed under written law as well as those developed at common law. The scope of fiduciary duties in private law is extensive – regulating the conduct of professions such as trustees, lawyers, company directors, company promoters, partners, and agents; and in some other relationships, the facts of the case may be such as justify the imposition of fiduciary duties on employees, financial advisors, bankers, and parties to joint venture, to quote a few examples. In instances not covered by precedent, fiduciary duties may be imposed where the hallmarks of trust and confidence are found.

The creation of the office of trustees under the companies as well as the capital markets and services statutes indicates the importance of the office of trustees, and the attendant fiduciary duties attached to trustees, in the corporate and financial sectors; and this is in addition to the existing principles of law, including those developed by equity, governing the exercise of directorial powers by company directors.

This publication should be welcomed not only by those who are involved in the teaching, practice and enforcing of the law but also by those to whom fiduciary obligations may apply, that is, everyone who may be bound by an obligation of loyalty to another party or parties in a given relationship, and their advisors.

FUNDAMENTALS OF RUNNING DOWN AND PERSONAL INJURY LITIGATION: Malaysian Litigation Series / Jeyaseelen Anthony
Malaysia: Sweet & Maxwell, 2022
374p.

DUO (Hardback + ProView eBook)
97896727233462
$ 125.00 / HB

A new addition to the Malaysian Litigation Series, Fundamentals of Running Down and Personal Injury Litigation is an instructive and practical book on the law relating to personal injury and fatal accident claims in Malaysia. It contains content on the evidential aspects of running down cases pursuant to the Evidence Act 1950 and more importantly the advocacy and litigation aspects of these types of claims including the pre-trial and trial stages of the cases.

The pre-trial aspects cover useful tips on preparing pleadings and bundles of documents while the part on trial considers the litigation and advocacy aspects of personal injury practice. Very practical in nature, this publication covers topics like litigating a running down case in court, the do's and don'ts when presenting a case as well as the leading of evidence and the cross-examination of witnesses to prove one's case to the satisfaction of the trial court. In short, readers are given useful guidance on how to build a strong foundation for their client's case in terms of strengthening the trial strategy both pre-trial and during trial.

The assessment of quantum of damages for injuries/losses sustained which form a major part of personal injury practice is adequately covered in this book. Commentaries on past case law and the latest development of the law are included as well as updates in relation to the latest amendments to the Civil Law Act 1956. The growing interest in issues surrounding settlements out of court is pertinently addressed to make this a very comprehensive title.

CONTEMPT OF COURT IN MALAYSIA: PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE: Malaysian Litigation Series /
Gan Chong Chieh

Malaysia: Sweet & Maxwell, 2022
432p.

DUO (Hardback + ProView ebook)
9789672723288
$ 150.00 / HB

The rules embodied in the law of contempt are intended to uphold and ensure the effective administration of justice. They serve to protect the integrity of the administration of justice, making sure that persons who seek justice and persons who participate in the administration of justice are adequately safeguarded.

There being no specific legislation enacted to date on contempt of court in Malaysia, the law governing this subject is primarily common law. This book serves as an important and up-to-date source of reference on committal proceedings for practitioners, academics and judicial officers alike. Covering both civil and criminal contempt, it contains the fruit of extensive research into local and UK case law as well as decisions from other Commonwealth jurisdictions like Singapore and Hong Kong. A useful discussion of the freedom of expression and its impact on contempt of court is included, as is a survey of the reform and development of the law of contempt in several Commonwealth countries.

Committal proceedings being very procedural in nature, an extensive chapter provides detailed discussion of the law, procedure and relevant considerations in committals. Sentencing principles, mitigation and the types of sentences which may be imposed for contempt are given due analysis, while appeals against the decisions of the courts are also discussed. A helpful collection of forms and precedents applicable to the conduct of committal proceedings complements the valuable legal analysis contained in this book.

CONSTRUCTION ADJUDICATION IN MALAYSIA 3rd Ed. / Lam Wai Loon
Malaysia: Sweet & Maxwell, 2022

706p.
DUO (Hardback + ProView eBook)
9789672723264
$ 210.00 / HB

Construction Adjudication in Malaysia examines legal principles which govern the application of the CIPA Act 2012. It examines and analyses most of the important judicial decisions on construction adjudication made by the courts in Malaysia, the United Kingdom, New Zealand, Australia and Singapore. Since the publication of the second edition, there have been more than 200 reported judicial decisions from the courts in Malaysia, including the Federal Court decisions in Jack-In-Pile (M) Sdn Bhd v Bauer (M) Sdn Bhd and Ireka Engineering & Construction Sdn Bhd v PWC Corp Sdn Bhd.

Organised in 22 systematically-structured chapters, the book provides in-depth and practical guidance on all stages of the adjudication process, from the filing of a payment claim, to the commencement of adjudication proceedings, the management of the adjudication proceedings up to the delivery of the adjudication decision, as well as enforcement, stay and challenge of adjudication decisions. This is topped off with an easy-to-understand and comprehensive Practice Guide which provides a step-by-step framework to successfully navigate the entire adjudication process.

The present work is a new and revamped edition of the highly regarded first and second editions, which have been described as a 'seminal' book on adjudication in Malaysia, and often referred to in Malaysian court judgments. This edition will continue to serve as a useful reference for judges, legal practitioners, adjudicators and students, as well as other stakeholders in the construction industry including employers, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and consultants.

Politics

Malaysia Towards GE15 and Beyond / Murray Hunter & Lim Teck Ghee

Petaling Jaya: SIRD-Strategic Information and Research Development Centre, 2022

xx, 160p.

9789672464495

1. Malaysia – Politics and government.
2. Political culture – Malaysia.
3. Political science – Malaysia.

4. Elections – Malaysia.

"[W]hen articles are written by astute commentators of the calibre of Hunter and Lim on the historical achievement of Malaysian voters rejecting BN after 61 years of unbroken, continuous rule, and the emergence of the nation's first alternative governing coalition, they deserve to be collected in a handy publication. After all, they represent the first draft of history, and would serve as the first port of call for scholars in future decades researching the truly historic period of 2018-2021 when posterity beckoned." – Tommy Thomas

Former attorney-general of Malaysia.

***

"As Malaysians anticipate GE15, we would do well to read these well-researched analyses by two of our best academics to avoid repeating the same follies of the past. With the two main political coalitions becoming interchangeable, Malaysia risks becoming a failed state if a progressive Third Force does not emerge soon to resolve the Malaysian dilemma." – Kua Kia Soong, Socialist with Malaysian characteristics.

***

"It is common and even fashionable for Malaysians to lament on what's wrong with the country, blame politicians and the system, and then sink into hopelessness and helplessness. Instead, we need to ask hard questions, examine possible options, decide on viable solutions and team up for collective action. This book by Hunter and Lim is an invitation for Malaysians to stare into the dark forces overshadowing Malaysia's past, present and future and walk out of the woods of despair." – Wong Chin Huat, Professor, Jeffrey Cheah Institute on Southeast Asia.

Dark Forces Changing Malaysia / Lim Teck Ghee & Murray Hunter
Petaling Jaya: SIRD-Strategic Information and Research Development Centre, 2022

xviii, 206p.

9789672464471

$ 19.00 / PB

352gm.

Dark Forces Changing Malaysia unravelling the complexities of the Malaysian journey since independence, which the authors dare touch on the issues that really matter which have been bullied out of the public space for being 'sensitive' and therefore off-limits to any reasonable discussion. This book helps us to take that crucial first step of looking at ourselves honestly and critically. If we can all put the nation first and do just that, we have a chance of the Malaysia we dreamed of. The vista which is painted within this volume draws from the despair and disillusionment so palpable among many of the citizenry, especially since the 14th General Election, but going back two decades or more. The gathering of the storm clouds over Malaysia is examined in some detail in Section I, which covers developments in the economic, political and socio-cultural sectors and provides a best and worst-case scenario for each of the sectors for the medium term. Although the worst-case scenario has not happened yet, today many Malaysians and friends from abroad see the country caught in a cul-de-sac of national development and worse, moving backwards in the key area of social cohesion and national unity which forms part of the substratum of any society be it democratic, technocratic, oligarchic, or totalitarian. The essays presented in Section I and other sections seek to identify the causes of this despair and disillusionment that is hindering true Malaysian nationhood.

The volume also contains commentaries dealing with the equally important substratum area of economic and socio-cultural development. In Section II, the issues of racial discrimination, religion, the New Economic Policy, government-linked companies, the 12th Malaysian Plan, and the general socioeconomic environment are examined, across a number of essays.

Here, the effects of the ideology of ketuanan Melayu are clearly seen within public policy, together with their discriminatory and deficient outcomes including for the targeted Malay poor. These essays point not only to the outdatedness of the racially oriented NEP but also its abuses and distortions favouring the elite classes. Of special concern are the social and racial divisions caused by the policy and its successor plans including the latest version touted in the "Shared Prosperity Vision 2030" of the Perikatan Nasional government.

The third section of the volume, "The State of Malay Politics" examines the institutions that have sent Malaysia further on its downward spiral. In this part, the role and complicity of the elites within society are closely examined. The implications of elite ambition, opportunism, and greed have stamped their influence into the nature and workings of the civil service, and also in the structure and modus operandi of the private business sector where corruption, cronyism and rent-seeking have become embedded.
