Criminal Law in Malaysia and Singapore (Revised 2nd Edition)
/ Stanley Yeo, Neil Morgan and Chan Wing Cheong
Singapore : LexisNexis, 2015
9789814608510
$ 145.00 / PB

This is a revised version by the authors to the existing content which critically evaluates the general principles of criminal responsibility in Malaysia and Singapore. This book is essential for legal practitioners, judges, scholars and students. The detailed analysis of the principles, workings, and complexities of criminal law in each chapter is done in an organised and structured manner, with clear headings and sub-headings that make it easy for referencing and review. A comprehensive analysis on major cases, academic commentary and law reform perspectives on criminal law clearly makes the book an authoritative text referred to in legal proceedings, judgments and scholarly journals.

This is a definitive source of comparative law for lawmakers and scholars in other jurisdictions, where the Indian Penal Code forms part of the law, as it features helpful and insightful discussions of how Malaysian and Singaporean judges have interpreted and applied the Code provisions.

Human Resource Practitioners' Guide to Industrial Relations / Arthur Khong
Singapore : LexisNexis, 2015
9789814608268
$ 60.00 / PB

Industrial Relations is commonly defined as the relationship between the management of a company and the trade union representing the workers. As such, not every HR practitioner has the opportunity to grasp the complicated, often emotive, area of industrial relations as it is only applicable to unionized companies.

The first edition of this book originates from the other title of this series, Human Resource Practitioners' Guide to Employment Laws. It serves to outline the Employment and Industrial Relations in Singapore, to have a better understanding of the rights and obligations of both employers and employees especially in unionised companies. This book is a valuable resource for those who want to learn more about Employment and Industrial Relations in Singapore.
