Rio Alma's latest collection of poems incorporates the poet's rare intuitive understanding of relevant issues with the use of native Tagalog forms, styles and motifs. After all, these forms, styles and motifs may be retained and articulated by many contemporary Filipino artists and scholars through their respective creative and critical productions. But the employment of ancient or native poetic forms may also translate what is "being Filipino" into more fully human terms. For Rio Alma, problematizing Philippine culture and society is simultaneously aesthetic, ethical and pedagogical.

A shadow falls. A shape in the window. A sound at the door. The dead have risen. This book collects ten short stories of horror, tragedy and the things in between from the terrifying imagination of award-winning fictionist Yvette Tan.

Flames and Other Stories / Angelo R. Lacuesta

Pasig City: Anvil Publishing, Inc., 2009

166p,; 21cm

ISBN-13: 9789712722479

$ 11.50

He's a late-night DJ, a smooth, relentless voice transforming loneliness into off-killer citizenship. Our post-modern, post-colonial, post-brand cereal world offers endless points of reference, but each of Lacuesta's lovingly created characters intuits a private way forward and thus traces for the reader an individual constellation of meaning. Lacuesta is not merely a DJ mixing messages from twin turntables, but also a scientist weighing inscrutable cultural and historical trade-offs in a pair of scales of subatomic sensitivity. These stories are pitch perfect.

Altyd somer / Jaybee Roux

Cape Town, South Africa : Tafelberg Publishers, 2009

ISBN 9780624047926

$ 12.95

After entering the Idols competition Karen Zimmerman becomes a runaway hit overnight. She has an endless amount of energy and is bubbly and friendly, South Africa's brilliant new star. But Karen also suffers from depression – something very few people know.

Upon returning from Iraq Ruaan le Roux accepts a job as Karen's body guard. To protect a young, arrogant star against screaming fans is not Ruaan's idea of the ideal job, but work is work. Little did Ruaan know the person Karen will need protection from most, is herself. Karen doesn't make things easy, but Ruaan is just as stubborn and unstoppable as Karen and has never backed down from a challenge. . .

From Joburg to Jozi: JoziStories About Africa's Infamous City / Heidi Holland
Johannesburg, South Africa : The Penguin Group (SA), 2010
ISBN 9780143026280
$ 20.00

In this new, updated edition over 50 pieces of writing emerged that reflect aspects of the city, idiosyncratic reactions to living and working here, appreciations of small and big things, some poems, some criticisms – all will find resonance with Jozi residents and all will be enlightening and entertaining to visitors hoping to learn something about our metropolis. Amazingly, many of the contributors expressed how much they enjoy being in Jozi – a far cry from the common perceptions of this infamous city!
