Bengaluru, Bangalore, Bengaluru : Imaginations and Their Times/ Narebdar Pani, Sindhu Radhakrishna (eds)

New Delhi : Sage publications,2010

xiv,290p. : 22 cm.

9788132103035

$ 20.00

Probing into the history beyond mere historical facts, this book focuses on the imaginations that have determined the course of Bengaluru over the last two-and-a-half centuries. It puts together contemporary accounts of the imaginations of those who were heard at each point of time. This approach is particularly relevant in present day India, of the current time where debates on history are largely a matter of choosing one set of historical facts instead of another. This work provides a new view of Bengaluru s history as well as a method of looking at the past that is quite different from most Indian historical studies

Mango Rains: The True story of a Thai mother's lifelong search for her abducted daughter / Daniel M. Dorothy Ireland: Maverick House Publishers, 2010
442p. ; 20cm.
ISBN-13: 9781905379668
$ 25.00

Mango Rains is the beautifully crafted story of a Thai woman who spent 21 years searching for her lost daughter.

Nid was told into bonded prostitution by her mother at 13 years of age. When she eventually falls pregnant she is thrown out of the brothel and gives birth to a baby girl, Lek. Unable to provide for her baby, Nid agreed to give her up. She later discovers the child was sold by its 'carer' to criminals who used her in a begging racket.

Mango Rains reads like the finest fiction but is tragically true. This is no ordinary book; it's a story of degradation, human trafficking and lost opportunity.

Footprints in the Paddy Fields / Tina Kisil

ISBN-13: 9789675222511
1. Dusun (Bornean people) – Anecdotes
$ 16.50

Footprints in the Paddy Fields is both a family portrait and a childhood memoir, set against the vanished world of bamboo huts on spindly timber stilts, a world where one's prized possessions were makeshift farm tools and a buffalo or two, and where the dead were placed in stone burial jars. Those were the days when removing human heads was a form of sport, and the only mode of transport was a pair of good legs...

Melaka From the Top / Dennis De Witt

Selangor: Nutmeg Publishing, 2010

160p. ; 22cm.

ISBN-13: 9789834351922

1. Melaka – Description and travel

$ 29.50

Melaka from the Top attempts to trace back and compare the geological and demographical transformation and development of the town of Melaka and its surroundings over the centuries, with focus on its expansion particularly within the last 40 years. Historic Melaka has changed dramatically over the 600 years of its history. However, it was only with the reclamation of its coast and expansion of the town in the last few decades that has truly changed the town. From its once 'sleepy hollow' little blackwater town, Melaka is now being transformed into a growing metropolis. This book records those changes and captures the images of how Melaka was then and is now, from eye level and from the top, as it continues to develop and change.

Between Dreams and Realities: Some Milestones in Pakistan's History / Sartaj Aziz

This book contains an illuminating record of the milestones and turning points in Pakistan's political history. It explores the basic causes of the failure of democracy in Pakistan and tries to demonstrate that only a genuine democratic dispensation and not military rule with a civilian façade can ensure its survival as a viable federation. Sartaj Aziz also argues that the vitality of a nation comes not only from economic progress and military might but also primarily from the value system, cultural heritage, and social energy of its people.
