Bards and Mediums: History, Culture and Politics in the Central Himalayan Kingdoms
(DVD Included) / Marie Lecomte-Tilouine (Edited)
Almora: Almora Book Depot, 2009
395p. ; 25cm.
ISBN-13: 9788190008693 (HB)
$ 30.00

The volume explores the fascinating culture of the central Himalayas, focusing on its rich bardic tradition and its highly institutionalized forms of spirit possession.

It offers a unique set of contributions on the role of mediumism in the social and political organizations of various kingdoms in Nepal and India's western Himalayas.

The history of the Malla Empire (12th – 14th centuries), and of its capital, Dullu, is explored through different forms of History : oral history through the recitation of genealogies and epics in their context of performance; ethno-history through the first investigation on the religious complex of Dullu; finally epigraphy through the studies of a large corpus of Malla inscriptions from Nepal and Uttarakhand.

Mapping Thai Muslims: Community Dynamics and Change on the Andaman Coast /
Wanni W. Anderson

Chiang Mai: Silkworm Books, 2010

x. 185p. ; 21cm.

ISBN-13: 9789749511923

$ 25.00

This longitudinal, anthropological study challenges the single, dominant narrative of Muslim discourse in Thailand. It focuses on Thai Muslims in the Nipa Island (pseud.) community on the Andaman coast, whose economic and education aspirations, social relationships, and ethnic identity have been significantly altered through globalization and the religio-political unrest on the southeastern coast of Thailand. Nipa islanders seek to define themselves on their own terms as both Thai and Muslim. Their Muslim identity is uniquely interwoven with the particularities of time, locality, and specific ethnocultural history that links them to the Andaman coast.

Mapping Thai Muslims also traces Muslim socioreligious changes from two centuries ago to the 1980s, and through to the present. The ongoing redrawing of Islamic religiosity allows unique insight into Nipa islanders as local actors and agents with their own individual viewpoints and consequent life decisions.

Based as it is on extensive fieldwork, this study will be of great appeal to anthropologists, historians, Southeast Asian and Asian scholars, and readers interested in Islam and Muslim identity.

Elephants in Thailand Volume 1: Mahouts and their Cultures Today / Joachim

Schliesinger

Bangkok: White Lotus Press, 2009

xvii. 182p. ; 21cm.

ISBN-13: 9789744801586

$ 28.00

Elephants in Thailand – Mahouts and their Cultures Today is the first of two volumes about Thai elephants. This volume portrays the plight of wild and domesticated elephants in modern Thailand. It shows how domesticated elephants are employed both in the timber industry and in the many elephant camps for tourists around the country.

It describes in detail the distinct elephant-keeping traditions of the various ethnic groups in the country that have an association with elephants, namely the Tai-speaking Thai (Central Thai), Southern Thai, Yuan Tai Yai (Shan), Tai Lue, Tai Yong, Tai Khoen, Lao Isan, Khorat Thai and Phuan; the Mon-Khmer-speaking Khmer, Kui, Mon, Khamu, Mpi and Lawap; as well the Sino-Tibetan-speaking Karen.
