Religious Perspectives on Climate Change: Faith Communities in Action
Bangkok: Asian Muslim Action Network (AMAN), 2009
147p. ; 21cm.
ISBN-13: 9789742359669
$ 12.00

What is the role of religion in responding to climate change? In the face of impending man-made ecological disaster and a surprising number of people and governments who refuse to heed the warning signs, communities of faith ground us in the interconnectedness of life on earth and remind us that in destroying the natural world we destroy ourselves.

ISBN-13: 9789555242400

$ 20.00

The Buddha had declared that the world consists of dukkha; it had arisen because of a cause, dukkha could be ended, and Four Noble Truths as the path to end the dukkha. The Buddha had disclosed where the Caturarya Satthiyaya is located. It is within about a fathom long oneself. Nowadays cheating oneself goes to worship the Buddha who is outside. The Buddha does not exist outside. The Buddha-hood the Buddha lives within oneself, within one's own heart itself. An Arahant exists within everyone. What is needed is to bring that Arahant out. Caturarya Satthiyaya Deshana presents the required process of activities to achieve it.

Buddhist Nuns: The Birth and Development of a Women's Monastic Order / Mohan Wijayaratna

Rev. Ed.

Kandy, Sri Lanka: Buddhist Publication Society Inc., 2010

x. 239p. ; 22cm.

ISBN-13: 9789552403453

$ 10.00

The Community of Buddhist Nuns is one of the oldest women's organizations in human history. In this book Dr. Wijayaratna explains how this community was started by the Buddha in the 5th century BCE, and how it developed gradually. To show the motivation and the way of life of these ordained women, the author uses the oldest texts of the Pali canon. Several chapters of this book discuss the position of Buddhist nuns in the field of the three famous monastic themes: poverty, chastity and obedience. This book describes in detail the structure of the organization of their Community, their day-to-day practices, and the virtues and mental discipline through which they strove to attain the sublime goal, Nibbana.

$ 20.00

During the divine alignment of the Sun, the Moon and Jupiter, the Nectar of Immortality flows down from heaven at specific holy places. Since prehistoric times men and women from all over the world, have journeyed to convene at four sacred locations in the quest for immortality. Maha Kumbh Mela Prayag 2001 attracted a record gathering of over 60 million pilgrims and this figure was surpassed and reached 80 million in Kumbh Mela Haridwar 2010.

Exotically transporting eyewitness accounts and photographs! Go inside the private tents of the most revered Sadhus: Nagas (naked, ash-smearing ascetics), known for their strange practices and martial power.

This book reveals their incredible initiation ceremonies, wild linga feats, royal processions, bathing, temple worship and funeral rites of the most unusual Sadhus.

The Hevajra Tantra: A Critical Study / David Snellgrove

Bangkok: Orchid Press, 2010

First published by Oxford University Press, London, 1959, 1980

xv. 188p. ; 23cm.

ISBN-13: 9789745241282

$ 50.00

In this groundbreaking work, the author presents a full translation of, and commentary on, the Hevajra tantra, providing not only deep insight into arguably the most important surviving tantric Buddhist text but also placing the entire corpus of such works into a more accurate context.

Snellgrove presents the Hevajra tantra, and tantric texts of this class, not as degenerate products of a faith at the time in terminal decline in India – as has often been claimed by puritanical scholars-but rather as a wholly legitimate expression of esoteric ritual and meditative practice developed as a natural evolution within the madhyamika tradition.

While based primarily on Nepalese manuscript editions of the text, Snellgrove makes extensive reference to the Tibetan translation as well as to extant Indian commentaries. The first half of the work comprises an introduction and the actual translation with detailed annotations, while the second consists of the Romanized original Sanskrit and Tibetan texts and an extensive glossary.
